

Case Study:

Ashi and Bushnag Co. for Contracting – NEBOSH IGC Training Success Story

theknowledgeacademy

Aamir Abdulkarim

Safety Officer

Ashi and Bushnag Co. for Contracting

Why?

Aamir, a Safety Officer at Ashi and Bushnag Co. for Contracting, wanted to gain a deeper understanding of safety processes and procedures in the workplace. He also aimed to strengthen his existing skills and enhance his professional capability.

Solution

Aamir chose The Knowledge Academy to complete the NEBOSH International General Certificate in Occupational Health and Safety training after discussing his requirements with the team. The course covered essential health and safety principles, including risk management, hazard control, and workplace safety practices.

Experience

Aamir described the training experience as highly positive and rated the course 10 out of 10. He valued the supportive learning environment and the trainer's patience and clarity. He also appreciated the practical insights shared beyond the core course content.

Outcome

The training significantly strengthened Aamir's understanding of safety processes and procedures and enhanced his existing knowledge. It also helped him refine his skills and apply improved safety practices more effectively in his role.

Results

- Quality of Course Content: 10/10
- Trainer Feedback: Exceeded expectations
- Booking Experience: Good and satisfactory

Client Testimonial

Aamir Abdulkarim

Safety Officer, Ashi and Bushnag Co. for Contracting

“The training was excellent and provided a supportive learning environment. The trainer was patient, humble, and highly knowledgeable, making it easy to understand key concepts.

I learned a lot despite my previous experience, and I would strongly recommend The Knowledge Academy for its quality training and trusted approach.”