

Case Study: Bank of America – PMP® Training Success Story

theknowledgeacademy | BANK OF AMERICA

Ravali Bhogaraju

Manager – Quantitative Services

Bank of America

Why?

Ravali Bhogaraju, a Manager in Quantitative Services at Bank of America, wanted to progress in her career by strengthening her project management and business analysis skills. She saw PMP® training as a valuable step in her professional development.

Solution

Ravali chose The Knowledge Academy to complete the PMP® Training Course after receiving positive feedback from her colleagues. She also recognised the organisation as an authorised training provider with a strong reputation for delivering high-quality training.

Experience

Ravali described her overall experience as excellent, rating the course 10 out of 10. She highlighted that the trainer exceeded expectations and delivered the sessions with clarity and practical insights.

She valued the seamless booking process and continuous assistance, highlighting that questions about the e-learning portal and course content were resolved promptly.

Outcome

The training strengthened Ravali's understanding of core project management concepts. It also enhanced her ability to apply practical techniques effectively in her day-to-day responsibilities.

Results

- Quality of Course Content: 10/10
- Trainer Feedback: Exceeded expectations
- Booking Experience: Good and supportive

Client Testimonial

Ravali Bhogaraju

Manager – Quantitative Services, Bank of America

“The training experience was excellent, and the support provided throughout the course was very helpful. The trainer simplified complex concepts and explained them with practical examples. The trainer was knowledgeable and offered clear guidance on preparing for the PMP® examination. I would highly recommend The Knowledge Academy for its structured and high-quality training.”