

Case Study: Blackmont Consulting – Business Analysis Training Success Story

theknowledgeacademy | Blck.

Rudrasish Mishra

Project Business Analyst
Blackmont Consulting

Why?

Rudrasish Mishra, a Project Business Analyst at Blackmont Consulting, wanted to advance his career and perform at a higher level than his peers. His goal was to strengthen his analytical skills and gain globally recognised certifications to enhance his expertise and career prospects.

Solution

Rudrasish chose The Knowledge Academy to complete the IIBA ECBA (Entry Certificate in Business Analysis) and IIBA CCBA (Certification of Capability in Business Analysis). His decision was influenced by the support he received from his course coordinating representative, Himanshu, whose guidance made the joining process smooth and reassuring.

Experience

Rudrasish described his training experience as amazing. He rated the course content 9.5 out of 10, noting that the trainer was knowledgeable, supportive, and engaging throughout. The sessions provided practical insights and examples that helped him understand complex business analysis concepts with ease.

Outcome

The training significantly improved Rudrasish's productivity and team effectiveness. With a stronger understanding of business analysis techniques and frameworks, he is now able to deliver more efficient solutions and add greater value to his projects.

Results

- Quality of Course Content: 9.5/10
- Trainer Feedback: Knowledgeable and engaging
- Booking Experience: Amazing

Client Testimonial

Rudrasish Mishra

Project Business Analyst, Blackmont Consulting

“It was an amazing experience that truly helped me grow in my role. The trainer was knowledgeable and supportive, and the coordination by Himanshu made everything seamless. The training has increased my productivity and effectiveness.”