

Case Study: Sopra Steria – APM PMQ Training Success Story

theknowledgeacademy | sopra  steria

Anne Taylor

Project Manager
Sopra Steria

Why?

Anne Taylor, a Project Manager at Sopra Steria, wanted to update her knowledge on project management and continue her professional development. She chose to pursue the APM PMQ to ensure her project management skills are up-to-date.

Solution

Anne selected The Knowledge Academy for her APM PMQ training because of the availability of a last-minute course that suited her schedule. The course was convenient and well-timed, offering good value for money.

Experience

Anne described her training experience as very good. She rated the course 9 out of 10 and praised the quality of the content. The trainer's approach was highly effective, greatly enhancing her overall learning experience. She also appreciated that the course provided good value for money, making it a worthwhile investment for her professional development.

Outcome

The training helped Anne update her project management knowledge, contributing to her CPD requirements. It provided valuable insights into project management principles that will benefit her in her current role and future projects.

Results

- Quality of Course Content: 9/10
- Trainer Feedback: Met expectations
- Booking Experience: Very good

Client Testimonial

Anne Taylor

Project Manager, Sopra Steria

"The APM PMQ course was exactly what I needed to update my project management knowledge. It was good value for money, and I was happy with the course's flexibility and the trainer's approach. I would definitely recommend The Knowledge Academy for its high-quality courses and professional delivery."