Tronox

Why?

Hussain Qadi, an Employee Services and Payroll Lead at Tronox, wanted to ensure full compliance with Saudi Arabia's Personal Data Protection Law (PDPL). His goal was to strengthen his understanding of data privacy principles, improve internal processes, and ensure that organisational practices aligned with regulatory requirements.

Solution

Hussain selected The Knowledge Academy to complete the Saudi PDPL Compliance Training. The decision was supported by a comprehensive curriculum tailored to PDPL requirements, experienced trainers and flexible learning options. The Knowledge Academy's strong reputation for delivering high-quality professional training also reinforced his choice.

Experience

Hussain described his experience as excellent. The training was structured clearly and delivered in an interactive format, including real-world examples that made it easy to apply in his role.

He rated the course content 10 out of 10, noting that the trainer exceeded expectations with clear explanations, thorough responses to questions, and practical insights. The booking process was smooth and supported by a responsive account manager.

Outcome

The training strengthened Hussain's understanding of PDPL requirements, helping him support stronger data protection measures within his organisation. It also enhanced the team's awareness of compliance risks and improved their ability to handle personal data responsibly.

Results

- Quality of Course Content: 10/10
- Trainer Feedback: Exceeded expectations
- Booking Experience: Smooth and efficient

Client Testimonial

Hussain Qadi

Employee Services & Payroll Lead, Tronox

“The training was well structured, interactive, and very practical. The trainer explained everything clearly and answered all questions with relevant real examples. I would definitely recommend The Knowledge Academy because the content was high quality, the trainer was an expert, and I can immediately apply what I learned in my workplace.”
